Art Unit: 3751

1. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

Claim 1 recites said accessory device "formed as a one piece integral unit molded of a plastic material". This subject matter is not found in the originally filed disclosure and is therefore considered to be new matter. In the response filed March 09, 2006, applicant failed to indicate how this new claim language is supported by the instant disclosure, as was required.

2. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

Claim 1 recites "said at least one flange portion being integrally formed on said accessory tray". This subject matter is not found in the originally filed disclosure and is therefore considered to be new matter. In the response, applicant failed to indicate how this new claim language is supported by the instant disclosure, as was required.

3. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabling for a securely held accessory tray including a flange having an opening receiving a projection, and a support portion, does not reasonably provide enablement for only a flange. The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the invention commensurate in scope with these claims.

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claim 13 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Karpinski.

The Karpinski reference discloses a device comprising: an upper surface 46 including inner and outer edges 44; and a flange portion (at 93) including an opening (receiving 92), as claimed. The initial statement of intended use (spa), and all other functional implications related thereto ("adapted to be received in a recess", for example), have been considered but do not appear to impose any patentably distinguishing structure over that disclosed by Karpinski.

In the response, applicant did not substantively address the Karpinski reference with regard to the new claim(s) as was required.

6. Applicant is referred to MPEP 714.02 and 608.01(o) in responding to this Office action.

7. The grounds of rejection have been reconsidered in light of applicant's arguments, but are still deemed to be proper.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

Art Unit: 3751
